

Florin Ardelean. Born in 1983. Researcher (Romanian Academy, Center for Transylvanian Studies, Cluj-Napoca). PhD Thesis (The Military Organization in the Principality of Transylvania. Counties and Fiscal Estates; supervisor: Univ. Prof. Dr. Ioan-Aurel Pop, member of the Romanian Academy), defended (magna cum laudae) in 2010 at the Babe-Bolyai University (Cluj-Napoca). Researches in the archives and libraries of Anvers, Bratislava Brussels, Budapest, Paris and Vienna (since 2007). EU, ESF, SOPHRD research fellow of the Romanian Academy (2011-2013). Invited lecturer (since 2011) at the University College London and at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (Paris). Editor of volumes and author of several studies and notes on late medieval and early modern warfare and social culture in East-Central Europe, with emphasis on the structural changes occurred after 1526-1541, most recently: (co-editor) The Age of the Jagiellonians in East-Central Europe. 1386-1526 (= Eastern and Central European Studies, II) (New York – Oxford – Basel – Frankfurt-am-Main – Wien: Peter Lang, 2012).

Iulian Mihai Damian. Born in 1975. Researcher (Accademia di Romania, Rome). PhD Thesis (John Capestrano and the Late Crusade; supervisor Univ. Prof. Dr. Ioan-Aurel Pop, member of the Romanian Academy) defended (summa cum laudae) in 2008 at the Babe-Bolyai University (Cluj-Napoca). Researches in the archives and libraries of Basel, Budapest, Capestrano, Florence, Genoa, Krakow, Milan, Prague, Rome, Vatican Venice and Vienna (since 2003). Fellow of the Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa (2004-2007), the University of Geneva (2008) and of the Warburg Institute in London (2009), as well as EU, ESF, SOPHRD research fellow of the Romanian Academy (2010-2012). Visting and invited lecturer (since 2007) at the universities of Geneva, Milan (State University and the Catholic University), Rome (La Sapienza) and at the Warburg Institute in London. Member in various research projects (e.g. relevant in this case: CNCSIS, A, 1498/2007 (2007-2008), A Century in the History of Transylvania (1387-1490) (director: Univ. Prof. Dr. Ioan-Aurel Pop). Author and editor of the several books, volumes and studies on late medieval crusading, with emphasis on Eastern Christendom, and on the relations between the Western and Eastern Churches in the 1300s and 1400s. Recent relevant publications: (author) Ioan de Capestrano i cruciada târzie [Giovanni da Capestrano and the Late Crusades] (Cluj-Napoca: Romanian Academy, Center for Transylvanian Studies, 2011); (co-editor) The Italian Peninsula and Europe's Eastern Borders. 1204-1669 (= Eastern and Central European Studies, I) (New York – Oxford – Basel – Frankfurt-am-Main – Wien: Peter Lang, 2012).

Adrian Magina. Born in 1977. Researcher (History Museum of Mountainous Banate, Re i a). PhD thesis (The Reformation in the Mountainous Banate; supervisor: Univ. Prof. Dr. Doru Radosav) defended (magna cum laudae) in 2008 at the Babe-Bolyai University (Cluj-Napoca). Researches in the archives and libraries of Belgrade, Budapest, Esztergom, Rome and Vienna (since 2003). Fellow of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Europa Institute (2005, 2006, 2008, 2009) and EU, ESF, SOPHRD research fellow of the Romanian Academy (2010-2012). Invited lecturer (since 2005) at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of History (Budapest), and at the Serbian Academy of Sciences, Institute of History (Belgrade). Member in various research projects (e.g. relevant in this case: PHARE, RO 2006/018-448.01.02.12, The Fortresses of the Banate: An European Heritage; director: Univ. Prof. Dr. Dumitru eicu). Author, editor and translator (from Hungarian and Serbian) of books, volumes and collection of documents, as well as of studies on articles, with particular emphasis on the question of Church Union and Reformation/ Counter-Reformation (between the 15th and 17th centuries). Recent relevant publications: (author) De la excludere la coabitare. Biserici tradi ționale, Reform i Islam în Banat (1500-1700) [From Exclusion to Cohabitation: The Traditional Churches, Reformation and Islam in the Banate. 1500-1700] (Cluj-Napoca; Romanian Academy, Center for Transylvanian Studies, 2011).

Alexandru Simon. Born in 1979. Researcher (Romanian Academy, Center for Transylvanian Studies, Cluj-Napoca). PhD Thesis (East-Central Europe and the Concept of Gate of Christendom. 1456-1526; supervisor: Univ. Prof. Dr. Ioan-Aurel Pop, member of the Romanian Academy) defended (summa cum laudae) in 2008 at the Babe-Bolyai University (Cluj-Napoca). Habilitated (Habil. Thesis: Faiths, Lands, Powers and Humans: Methods and Sources for the Interdisciplinary Study of the Middle Ages) in 2013 at the Babe-Bolyai University (Cluj-Napoca). Researches in the archives and libraries of Aachen, Budapest, Dresden, Genoa, Innsbruck, Milan, Munich, Paris, Rome, Vatican, Venice or of Vienna (since 2000). Fellow of the Paris IV-Sorbonne University (2000-2001), the University of Geneva (2004), the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Europa Institute (2006), the University of Vienna and the Menachem Elias Foundation of the Romanian Academy (2007) and of the New Europe College (2008-2009). Visting and invited lecturer (since 2006) at the universities of Budapest (Eötvös Loránd), Leicester, London (University College), Milan (State University), Szeged or Vienna, as well as at the Austrian Academy of Sciences, Institute for Byzantine Studies (Vienna), École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (Paris), or the Federal Institute for the History and Culture of the Germans in Eastern Europe (Oldenburg). Member of the Global Young Academy (Berlin-Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften-Leopoldina) since 2012. Dimitrie Onciul award of the Romanian Academy (2007). Co-editor of Eastern and Central European Studies series with Peter Lang since 2011. Director and member in various national and international projects and grants (e.g. relevant in this case: CNCS(IS), TE, 206/2010 (2010-2013), The Genesis of the Modern Transylvanian Elites. 18th-20th Centuries; director: Dr. Attila Varga). Author and editor of books, volumes and studies with emphasis on medieval geopolitics, as well as on late medieval crusading. Recent relevant publications: (co-editor) Matthias Corvinus und seine Zeit: Europa am Übergang vom Mittelalter zur Neuzeit zwischen Wien und Konstantinopel (= Denkschriften der Österreichischen Akademie der Wissenschaften, CDX) (Wien: Verlag der Österreichischen Akademie der Wissenschaften, 2011); (author) P mânturile crucii. Români i cruciada târzie [The Lands of the Cross: The Romanians and the Late Crusades] (Cluj-Napoca: Romanian Academy, Center for Transylvanian Studies, 2012). Director of the CNCS(IS) TE, 356/2010 (2010-2013) research project The Eastern Policy of the House of Habsburg (1400s-1500s).